

Contents

Introduction.....	7
I. The Rise of Shaykhism.....	11
The “Fourth Pillar” (rukn-i rābi)	12
II. The Life and Works of Abū al-Qāsim Khān Ibrāhīmī	15
The Structure of Ijtibād wa taqlīd	17
III. What Is the Legacy of Akhbarism in Shaykhī Doctrine?.....	19
Connections between Shaykh Aḥmad al-Aḥsā’ī and the akhbārī Ulemas.....	21
The Position of the Shaykhīs within the Intellectual History of Shi’ism.....	22
IV. A Study of Ijtibād wa taqlīd	25
A. The Meaning of the Word ijtibād	25
B. The Notion of muqallid	26
C. The Origins of ijtibād and Its Development in the Shi’ī Context.....	31
The Reasons for the Shift towards ijtibād within Shi’ism.....	34
Similarities to the Arguments of akhbārī Ulemas	37
D. Fiqh , Islam, and Reason (‘aql).....	40
The Reasoning and Science of ḥadīth	42
E. Abū al-Qāsim Khān Ibrāhīmī’s Proposals	44
Which fiqh to Adopt?	44
The “Trustworthy men” (shakhs-i thiqa)	44
The Necessity of the Nātiq-i wāḥid	46
Which understanding of Taqlīd ?	47
Conclusions	49